

Please do not overturn this law! It has saved my sanity and that of my family. Unwanted phone calls provide unnecessary stress to active families. They interrupt precious time with our children. They grow up too quickly as it is.